

Mobile TV

Session 8

Saturday, October 11

3:00-5:00

African American Culture Room (Level 4)

Given the significant take up of cell phones around the world -- one of the most adopted technologies to date -- how or can this technology shift television viewing practices, gaps, and divides? What challenge does this represent for television? What of other mobile viewing devices?